

Spending time engineering your valve automation needs? You wouldn't buy a car like that would you?

Buying "fully integrated" actuators and control modules from Emerson as a single source, provides multiple user benefits as well as cutting costs across the whole product life-cycle. Reduced inventory and maintenance with plug and play modules comes as standard. We'll also provide the exact level of control functionality that will suit your process best, from conventional applications to bus protocols such as FOUNDATION™ fieldbus and compatibility with proven PlantWeb® digital plant architecture. See for yourself at www.EmersonProcess.com/FieldQ or call 0191 518 0020.
